IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF DEKALB COUNTY
STATE OF GEORGIA

[redacted] L. [redacted]

Plaintiff,

v.

FIRST ACCEPTANCE INSURANCE COMPANY OF GEORGIA, INC. et al.

Defendant.

Civil Action File No. 25CV10635

DEFENDANT FIRST ACCEPTANCE COMPANY OF GEORGIA INC.'S RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

COMES NOW, FIRST ACCEPTANCE INSURANCE COMPANY OF GEORGIA, INC ("Defendant"), by and through the undersigned counsel and hereby serves its Responses to [redacted] L. [redacted] ("Plaintiff"), PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION TO DEFENDANT FIRST ACCEPTANCE INSURANCE COMPANY OF GEORGIA, INC, and states as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. The following responses are based upon information presently available to this Defendant which this Defendant believes to be correct. These responses are made without prejudice to Defendant's right to use subsequently discovered facts.

2. No incidental or implied admission of fact by this Defendant is made by the responses below. The only admissions are express admissions. The fact that this Defendant has responded to these requests may not properly be taken as an admission that the Defendant's responses constitute admissible evidence. The fact that Defendant has responded to part or all of the Plaintiff's requests is not intended to be, and shall not be construed to be, a waiver by the Defendant of all or any part of any objection of the Defendant to the admissibility of same at trial, or the relevance of the response.

3. Responses to the Plaintiff's requests may be supplemented upon Defendant's further investigation and acquisition of information which the Defendant does not either possess or recall at this time. However, any such further supplementation will be made in accordance with the Georgia Civil Practice Act, O.C.G.A. § 9-11-1, et seq.

4. Defendant shows that notwithstanding any of the "definitions" or preliminary instructions contained within the Plaintiff's requests, Defendant will only provide responses which are required pursuant to the Georgia Civil Practice Act.

5. In accordance with O.C.G.A. § 9-11-36(b), the Defendant's responses to the Plaintiff's requests are for the purposes of the pending action only and shall not constitute an admission by the Defendant for any other purpose, nor may they be used against Defendant in any other proceeding.

6. Defendant objects to all of the Plaintiff's Requests to Admit on the grounds that discovery has not yet been completed and all facts are not yet known which may be applicable to responding to these Requests to Admit.

RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1.

Admit that You underwrote the Policy.

RESPONSE: Admitted as to Defendant. Defendant denies the remainder of the Request.

2.

Admit that You recognize [redacted] an insured under the Policy.
