> RECORDS REQUESTED — THE TEN INDIVIDUALS
> 1. The complete licensing history in your state for each individual listed above — every license held, the type, the number, every change in status, the address on file, and every name, alias, maiden name, married name, or spelling variation.
> 2. The complete appointment history for each — every insurance company that appointed them, the start date, the end date, and the exact reason code reported when each appointment ended.
> 3. Every producer code, agent number, or internal identifier any insurance company reported to your Department for each.
> 4. Every termination and termination-for-cause notice your Department received about any of them from any insurance company, and the date received.
> 5. Every consumer complaint about any of them, for any reason — this is not limited to signatures. Include the complaint form, the company's response, and the disposition.

6. Every disciplinary or administrative record — consent orders, fines, suspensions, revocations, probation, and closed investigative files.
7. Every investigation your Department opened about any of them, whether or not it led to action.
8. If your Department holds no record for a person on this list, please state that in writing and name the databases searched.

RECORDS REQUESTED — THE COMPANIES

The following requests concern First Acceptance Insurance Company of Georgia, Inc.; First Acceptance Corporation; First Acceptance Insurance Company, Inc.; First Acceptance Insurance Company of Tennessee, Inc.; First Acceptance Insurance Services, Inc.; Acceptance Insurance Agency of Tennessee, Inc.; and any company registered in your state under a name containing "Acceptance Insurance" or "First Acceptance," or under any trade name or d/b/a used by any of them, including Focus Auto Insurance Solutions.
9. Every consumer complaint received about any of those companies from January 1, 2020 to the present.
10. Every complaint in which a consumer stated that they did not sign, did not authorize, or did not request a policy, a coverage, or a charge — regardless of which agent was involved and whether any agent was named.
11. Every market conduct examination of any of those companies — the final report and any related order.
12. Every investigation, enforcement action, consent order, fine, cease-and-desist order, or corrective action plan involving any of those companies, for any kind of misconduct.
13. Every record showing which of those companies is or has been licensed in your state, under what name and trade name, and the status of each license.
14. Every record of a name change, trade name, d/b/a, or successor designation filed by any of those companies in your state from January 1, 2020 to the present."

On October 2, 2026, the Department notified you that additional time would be needed to process your request. We stated that we would respond by October 9, 2026. The Department contacted you again on October 9, 2026, to notify you that more time would be needed to process your request. We stated that we would respond by October 19, 2026.

Regarding item number one of your request related to Nubia Griffin, Yonna Boday, Tusha Bass, Elena Garro, and Farah Ahaei-Ardekani, please be advised that the Department has not located any records responsive to your request, pursuant to a reasonable search of records within the agency's possession or control. Documents responsive to item number one of your request related to the remaining individuals listed are attached, located pursuant to a reasonable search of records within the Department's possession or control. Please be advised your request is partially denied to the extent it contains information redacted, including personal phone numbers, personal email addresses, residential addresses, dates of birth, and demographic information, exempt from disclosure pursuant to Sections 7(1)(b), and (c) of FOIA [5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b), and (c)].

Section 7(1) of FOIA states in pertinent part as follows:

> Sec. 7. Exemptions
> (1) When a request is made to inspect or copy a public record that contains information that is exempt from disclosure under this Section, but also contains information that is not exempt from disclosure, the public body may elect to redact the information that is exempt. The public body shall make the remaining information available for inspection and copying. Subject to this requirement, the following shall be exempt from inspection and copying:

(b) Private information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order.

(c) Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information.

Regarding items number two, three, four, six, and seven of your request, please be advised that the Department has not located any records responsive to your request, pursuant to a reasonable search of records within the agency's possession or control.

Regarding items number five, nine, and ten of your request, please be advised your request is denied because the responsive records are confidential information exempt from disclosure pursuant to Sections 7(1)(a), (b), and (c) of FOIA [5 ILCS 140/7(1)(a), (b), and (c)] and Section 926.40(d), Title 50 of the Illinois Administrative Code [50 Ill. Adm. Code 926.40(d)].

Section 7(1) of FOIA states in pertinent part as follows:

Sec. 7. Exemptions

(1) When a request is made to inspect or copy a public record that contains information that is exempt from disclosure under this Section, but also contains information that is not exempt from disclosure, the public body may elect to redact the information that is exempt. The public body shall make the remaining information available for inspection and copying. Subject to this requirement, the following shall be exempt from inspection and copying:

(a) Information specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal or State law or rules and regulations implementing federal or State law.

(b) Private information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order.

(c) Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information.

Section 926.40(d), Title 50 of the Illinois Administrative Code states in pertinent part as follows:

> Section 926.40 Complaint Handling Procedures
> (d) The Department deems complaint files to be confidential records and will not release them to persons other than the complainant and the respondent.

Regarding items number eleven and twelve of your request, records responsive to your request are publicly available online at Property & Casualty Examinations and https://idoi.illinois.gov/companies/directors-orders.html. This link is provided on the Department's website at https://idoi.illinois.gov/. The Department has interpreted a request for records maintained on the Department's website to be for filings that are accessible to the public.

Because the Department makes the records that you have requested available to the public online, in accordance with Section 8.5(a) of FOIA [5 ILCS 140/8.5(a)], your request to be individually provided a copy of the records is denied.

Section 8.5 of FOIA states, in pertinent part:

> Sec. 8.5. Records maintained online.
> (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, a public body is not required to copy a public record that is published on the public body's website. The public body shall notify the requester that the public record is available online and direct the requester to the website where the record can be reasonably accessed.

Regarding items number thirteen and fourteen of your request, attached are documents with the information responsive to your request located pursuant to a reasonable search of records within the Department's possession or control.

This determination has been made by the Illinois Department of Insurance FOIA Officer Renee E. Overton.

You have the right to have the partial denial of your request reviewed by the Public Access Counselor (PAC) at the Office of the Illinois Attorney General. You can file your Request for Review with the PAC by writing to:

Public Access Counselor
Office of the Attorney General
500 S. 2nd Street
Springfield, Illinois 62701

You also have the right to judicial review of your partial denial by filing a lawsuit in the State circuit court

[5 ILCS 140/11].

If you choose to file a Request for Review with the PAC, you must do so within 60 calendar days of the date of this partial denial letter [5 ILCS 140/9.5(a)]. Please note that you must include a copy of your original FOIA request and this partial denial letter when filing a Request for Review with the PAC.

The Department is authorized to charge $1.00 per page for paper copies exceeding 50 pages, for copying fees pursuant to Section 408(1)(t) of the Illinois Insurance Code [215 ILCS 5/408(1)(t)]. No fee will apply to your request since the records you requested are not paper copies.

Sincerely,

Renee E. Overton
