Ms. [redacted],

I'm writing to inform you that the attached subpoena marked "OIC Subpoena" was improperly served on the Department of Revenue. It is addressed to the Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner which is a separate agency and is not located at 2595 Century Parkway. To find out how to serve legal process on the Office of Insurance and Safety Fire, please consult their website at: https://oci.georgia.gov/.

Regarding the second subpoena you served on the Department of Revenue, marked "DOR Subpoena", I note that both the date of service and the date of appearance are nearly 12 months in the past. The date of service is 1/17/2025 and appearance date is 1/22/2025.

If there is no objection from opposing counsel, who are copied, the Department will process the DOR Subpoena as a nonparty request for production under O.C.G.A. § 9-11-34(c), the 20-day period for which commenced on the date of service on the Department – 12/15/25. Please let me know via return email if you have any objection to that plan or to the Department providing the information requested.

Kind regards,

Amy Bushyeager

Dear Ms. Bushyeager,

Thank you for your prompt and helpful correspondence regarding the subpoenas served on December 15, 2025.

Regarding the DOR Subpoena (Motor Vehicle Division): I accept your proposal to process the DOR Subpoena as a nonparty request for production pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 9-11-34(c), effective as of the service date of December 15, 2025. I have no objection to this plan and respectfully request that the Department proceed with providing the requested information regarding the insurance status of the vehicle (VIN [redacted]).

Regarding the OIC Subpoena (Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner): I acknowledge that this subpoena was inadvertently served to the Department of Revenue address. I will correct this error and effectuate proper service on the Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner at their correct address (2 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, West Tower, Suite 704). Please disregard the copy of the "OIC Subpoena" that was left with your office.

Please let me know if you need anything further from me at this time.

I appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

Kind regards,

Ms. [redacted],

In light of Mr. Jackson's objection, the Department's preference would be for you to re-serve the subpoena. As stated in my previous email, the subpoena is flawed. The date of service is 1/17/2025 and appearance date is 1/22/2025.

The certificate of service is also not signed. (Reattached for your review).

The Department asks that you correct these errors and re-serve the subpoena at which time defense counsel will have an opportunity to object pursuant to the Georgia Civil Procedure Act.

Guidelines for serving the Department of Revenue can be found here: https://dor.georgia.gov/about-department-revenue/office-general-counsel/service-legal-documents.

Mr. Harris,

This might be a bit of a matter of first impression in Georgia given the recent reforms to the Civil Practice Act last year, however, we believe Discovery in this matter is currently stayed pursuant to O.C.G.A. 9-11-12(j)(1) , and the stay applies to non-party discovery.

Please see attached for the Motion to dismiss which we filed on January 2nd which shall operate to stay all discovery in this matter and also operate to toll the time to object to non-party discovery.

Please confirm that you are in agreement on this position.

Mr. Harris,

I am writing only to clarify the record.

I do not agree with Defendant's position that discovery is stayed as to the Department based on filings made after service of the subpoena. I defer to the Court on any application of O.C.G.A. § 9-11-12(j), and I am not aware of any court order staying non-party discovery or tolling objection deadlines applicable to the Department.

Out of an abundance of caution, I respectfully request that all records responsive to the subpoena be preserved pending further direction from the Court.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully,

Given Mrs. [redacted]s position it appears all parties are in agreement as to the path forward:

(1) By operation of statute, not order of the court discovery is stayed and the time to object to the subpoena is tolled;
(2) The Department of Revenue will hold off on producing the requested documents but will preserve such documents;
(3) The parties will await the courts adjudication on the motion to dismiss which will necessarily either remove the stay or terminate the case thus making the subpoena moot.

Mr. Harris,

I want to correct the record because there appears to be a misunderstanding.

I do not agree with Mr. Jackson's statement, and there is no agreement between the parties to pause or delay the Department's response. I also do not agree that Defendant's time to object was paused or extended.

My position is simple: the subpoena is valid and calls for production on Friday, January 23, and I have not asked for or agreed to any delay. Unless the Court orders otherwise, I am requesting that the Department comply with the subpoena as noticed.

If the Department decides on its own to wait without a court order, then I respectfully ask that all responsive records be kept safe and not deleted.

Respectfully,
