Description:

Call Summary: Georgia resident [redacted] called CID to report First Acceptance Agent Toneshia Simmons Huff for committing possible forgery. [redacted] applied for auto insurance with Simmons Huff on January 19, 2024. She paid $336.30 with her credit card as a first deposit. According to [redacted] he never received any of the policy paperwork. On January 20, [redacted] placed her car in an auto shop for unrelated accident repairs. She discovered that the auto policy was active and lacked collision coverage. [redacted] claims that she did not sign the documents she was eventually provided from another Acceptance agent.
